

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Master Sergeant Wayne R. Domogalski's dedication to service has made him a valuable asset to this state and country; and,

Whereas, We have very few occasions to recognize the patriotic individuals for their service to this state and country; and,

Whereas, Master Sergeant Domogalski devoted more than 37 years of his life to the service of this state and country as a leader in the Engineer field, with service in Jamaica, Panama (on three occasions), and Nicaragua, including a federal mobilization to Kuwait, and numerous state active duty missions; and,

Whereas, His loyalty and leadership have made him a cornerstone in the Armed Forces of this country; and,

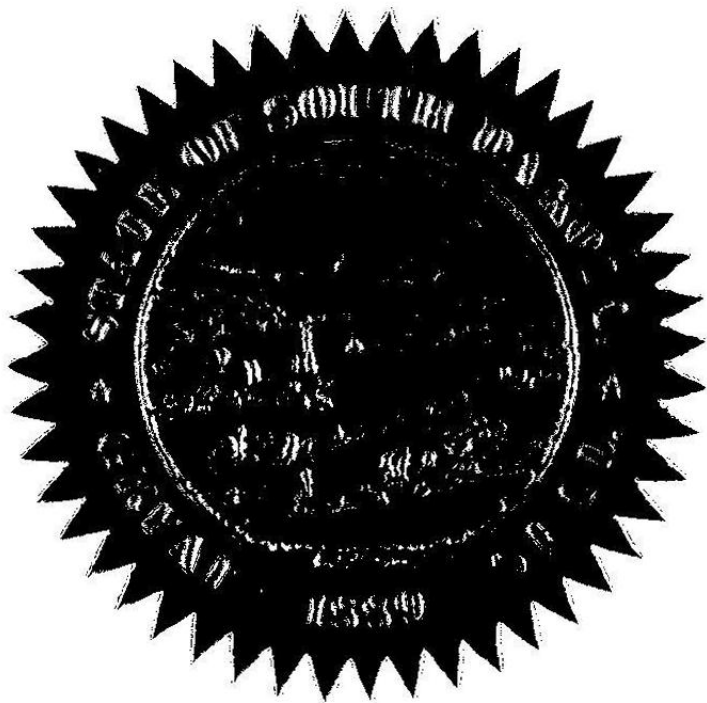

Whereas, Master Sergeant Domogalski continues to give of himself; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to commend Master Sergeant Wayne R. Domogalski for more than 37 years of dedicated and outstanding service to this state and country:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim March 31, 2005, as in South Dakota, and I join with his family and friends in wishing him well in his retirement and thanking him for his service to the state of South Dakota and the United States.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Tenth Day of February in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Five.

M. Michael Rounds
